About us

Chesterfield Insurance Brokers Ltd is a registered Lloyd's broker with our headquarters located at the heart of the London insurance market.

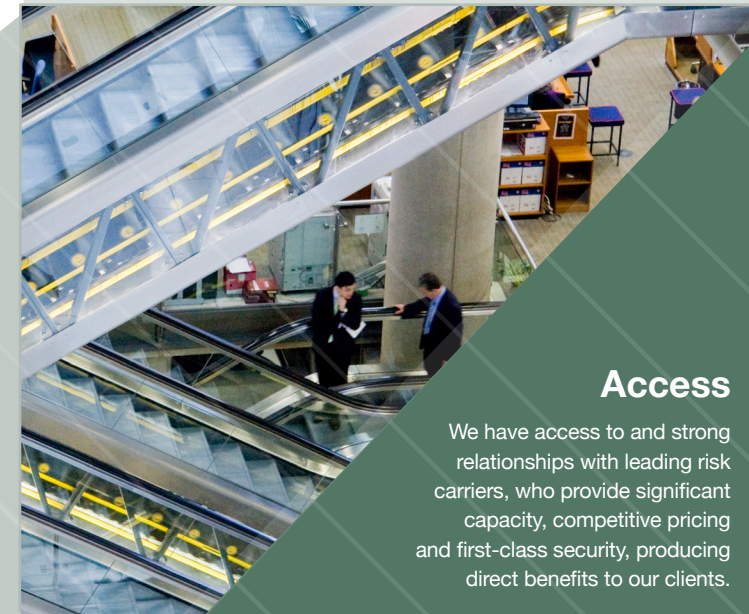

The market's immense pool of underwriting capability and capacity is a short walk from our London office.

Our brokers are all seasoned professionals with many years' experience and strong relationships across the underwriting community, including our senior management team, who still take an active hands-on role in placing our clients' business.

All of our insurance professionals, including our claims and technical teams, are based in one office and work as one team to provide our clients with the best possible service.

Your Independent London Partner

We are an independent insurance broker with the strength and capability to out-perform our competitors.

Access

We have access to and strong relationships with leading risk carriers, who provide significant capacity, competitive pricing and first-class security, producing direct benefits to our clients.
